Concentration Risk: Holding a limited number of underlying investments means a change in the value of any one investment has more impact on the Fund's value. This increases potential gain but also potential loss.

Foreign Exchange Risk: The Fund's portfolio of investments may be denominated in a range of currencies which differ from the Fund's base currency. Fluctuations in these currencies may increase the risk of losses to the Fund where hedging is not used or is incomplete or unsuccessful.

Full details of risks are disclosed in the 'Risk Factors' section of the Fund Supplement to the Prospectus.

The following risks which are not, or are not fully, reflected in the risk/ reward profile are also relevant to the Fund:

Liquidity: The Fund's value may fall if shares, especially those of smaller companies, become more difficult to trade or value due to market conditions, or lack of supply and demand.
