Risk and reward profile

Lower risk Typically lower rewards			Higher risk Typically higher rewards
1	2	3	4	5	6	7

The risk and reward indicator is calculated on the basis of the share class volatility (the ups and downs in its value) over the prior 5 year period.

The risk and reward indicator:

- is based on simulated historical performance data and may not be a reliable indication for the future;
- is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- As this share class has not been in existence for 5 years, simulated performance data has been used.
- The lowest category does not mean that a share class is risk free.

The share class category reflects the following factors:

- Higher volatility can result from investments in shares as their value may fluctuate more than other financial instruments, such as bonds.
- Your initial investment is not guaranteed.

In addition to the risk captured by the indicator, the Fund value may be affected by:

- Any change in the Company's tax status or in legislation could affect the value of investments held by the Company.
- Political and/or regulatory risks.
- Liquidity risk: The risk that some securities held by the Fund may be difficult or impossible to sell at the desired time and price. The Fund's investments include shares in small-cap companies. Small-cap companies tend to be traded less frequently and in lower volumes than larger companies making them potentially less liquid and more volatile.

- Credit risk: represents the risks associated with an issuer's sudden downgrading of its signature's quality or its default.
- Counterparty risk: represents the risk of default of a market participant to fulfil its contractual obligations vis-à-vis your portfolio.
- Capital risk linked to the dividend distribution policy: fixed dividend distributions may be paid out of capital if investment income is less than the fixed distribution amount.

Investors should note that a more detailed description of risk factors is set out in full in the Prospectus.
